Margaret Eaton School Medal

Seller Attains Highest Standing
In Her Class

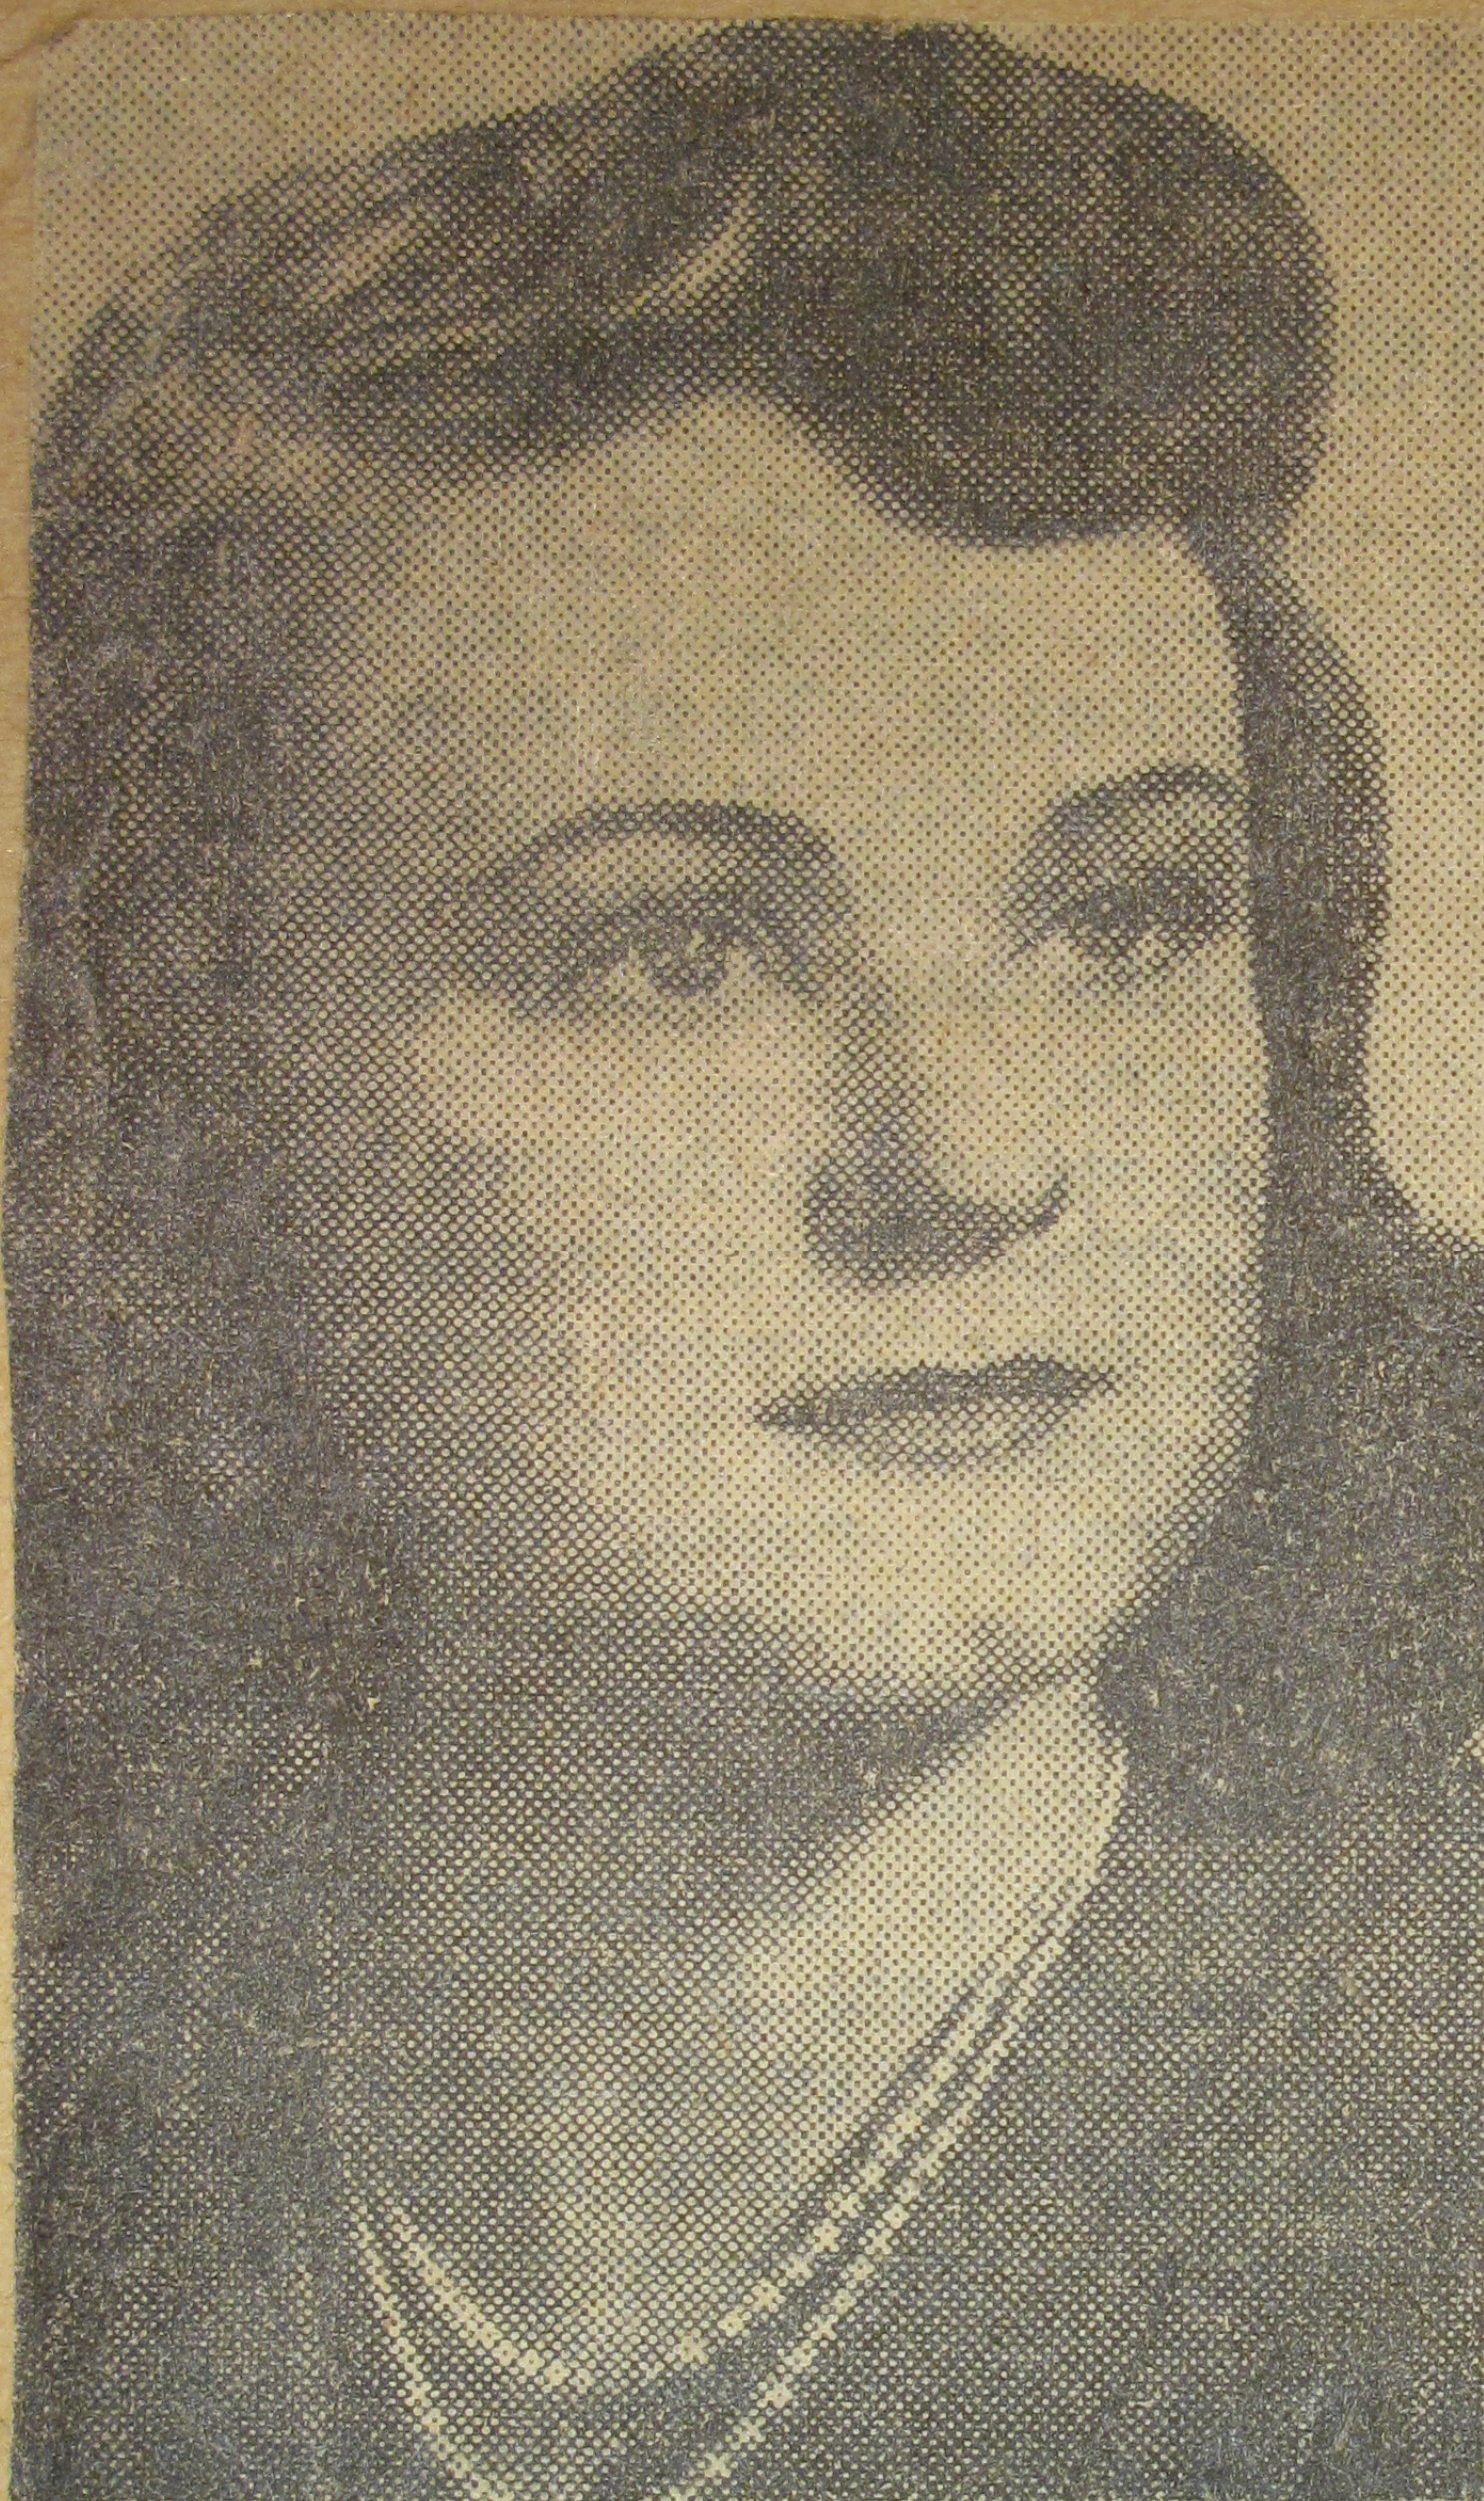

18.1

A former resident of Edmonton, and graduate of Eastwood high school, Miss Pauline Seller, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Seller and the late Rev. John Seller, received the Margaret Eaton silver medal at graduation ceremonies at the Margaret Eaton school in Toronto last week. The medal is awarded to the pupil who has the highest standing in the class and who has given the greatest service to the school.

Miss Seller was well known among the younger people of Edmonton, and left here two years ago to attend the school. Before that she was active in Y.W.C.A. work, and held a position as private secretary to the assistant manager of The T. Eaton Co. Western Limited.

She was also well known in Edmonton musical circles, and sang in several concerts while living here. During her stay in Toronto she was soloist in one of the city churches. This summer Miss Seller will act as councillor at the Margaret Eaton club camp just out of Toronto, and in the fall she will take a position with the Y.W.C.A. in Regina as director of physical education there.
